March Topic: The Importance of Cultural Inclusion and Diversity in the Workplace

Brandy Smith is a licensed psychologist and serves as the Assistant Director, Clinical Training at Auburn University's Student Counseling Services. Prior to joining the Auburn family in Aug. 2011, she worked at New Mexico State University for 3 years. Her undergraduate degree was in psychology from Mississippi University for Women, and MS is her home state. She completed her masters in Counseling and Ph.D. in Counseling Psychology both from University of Memphis. Brandy has been focusing on diversity since her honors project at MUW and has worked hard since then to expand her own and others knowledge and skillsets in that area.
