Our Approach

Good health is absolutely essential for every one of us. At New Directions, we believe that the physical, mental and emotional wellness of your colleagues contributes directly to your organization's financial and business performance. Our members are individuals and families, just like you and yours.

Employers, health care providers and leading health care companies have partnered with us for more than two decades to help guide individuals toward balance in their careers and personal lives. We provide the compassionate care and innovative tools that enable members to overcome obstacles and challenges—so they can thrive and your business can flourish.

We are committed to serving our members, partners and providers with 24/7 support, reducing cost through active preventative solutions and delivering award-winning innovation through our unique clinical service infrastructure.

We offer a full range of behavioral health solutions. Our relationship with health plans enables us to integrate our services seamlessly with traditional medical support. Our managed behavioral health services include incisive analytics, the finest in quality as-

About Our Solutions

Because the future is made from what we do every day, together is the way forward. If you and your organization take care of your people today and get them the help they need, they will have a stronger bond in, and with, your organization tomorrow.

To help you build that bond, we focus exclusively on integrated health care to achieve our primary goals—enhancing health, reducing costs and improving the individual experience in receiving care. It comes down to providing people with the right care from the right experts, at the right time, and at the right cost.
